Bankfoot and Little Glenshee Loop - 45km

1. Hire bikes from Progression Bikes in Dunkeld
2. Cycle into Birnam, following signs for Train Station (head up the steps) and then Route 77. Go through carpark, follow cycle path then back road.
3. After 800m on back road, take track on left past houses and cross A9 into Murthly Estate
4. Take main track through estate to South Archway. Here turn right (avoiding road) then left at top to junction
5. Take track on right (Gellyburn) then left at the T Junction proceeding through farm then right and a long straight over the A9
6. After crossing take left to Bankfoot. (Short loop return to Dunkeld on B867).
7. At Bankfoot, take right then left to Tullybelton, and left after the school.
8. After 4km pick up signs to Little Glenshee, spotting white house in distance.
9. Before house note Car Park on left. Over halfway in distance at house, expect battery % 40-70 remaining. Lunch spot best at 2nd gate after house
10. Continue off road for 7km, through gates and mix of surfaced trail with occasional wet sections in poor weather
11. Take right onto A822 for 5km. Caution cars travel at high speeds. Single file recommended on left
12. Left to Rumbling Bridge for quieter back road for 2.3km. Look for Braan Path track sign straight ahead
13. Take Braan Path and Hermitage signs to lower car park at Hermitage
14. Look for path on right at A9 junction. Do not ride on A9. Return to Dunkeld passing under A9 after campsite
